An Invitation from the AMF for Us...

In January the Astronauts Memorial Foundation, in partnership with NASA and DNC Parks & Resorts at KSC, Inc., will host a tribute commemorating the 50th anniversary since the loss of Apollo 1.

The NASA Day of Remembrance ceremony will take place Thursday, January 26, 10:00 am at the Astronauts Memorial Foundation, located at the Kennedy Space Center Visitor Complex.

This ceremony, open and free to the public, will honor the heroic crew of Apollo 1 and pay homage to all of the astronauts who have sacrificed their lives for our nation and the space program. At the conclusion of the ceremony there will be a special wreath-laying presentation at the Space Mirror Memorial.

Please e-mail Andrea Smith at asmith@amfcse.org or call 321-452-2887, ext. 105 with your RSVP in order to receive information about parking and access to the KSC Visitor Complex.
